Nirvana Realty honored with The 7th Realty Leader Award

Nirvana Realty one of the leading developer in Maharashtra's weekend home market has bagged the 'The Best Luxury Developer of Weekend Homes in Maharashtra' award at the 7th Edition of the Realty Summit and Award 2017. The Award function which took place in Mumbai saw delegates from across the Real Estate segment attend the award function. With over a decade of expertise in the second home markets and successful projects across the state, this award sure makes Nirvana Realty feel bullish in the Weekend homes segment.

The Worldwide Acheivers Realty Leader Award is celebrated as the highest level of achievement by companies and individuals functioning in the real estate industry. The Awards recognise excellence in the Real Estate profession and encourages consumer satisfaction, innovation, professional evolution, also promoting significant promotion to the occupation. Felicitated by such a huge platform is just an addition to the glorious journey of Nirvana Realty.

On this delightful occasion Mr. Punit Agarwal, CEO - Nirvana Realty commented, "We are elated receiving this award. What started as a passion for the outdoors, has today seen such heights that none of us ever imagined! I'm thankful to my team for their relentless hardwork & passion that has helped us reach where we are today. Our customers have been our biggest support & it's because of them we stand successful today. We believe this is just a beginning and we have a long way ahead; but its ceratinly a stamp of approval that we're headed in the right direction."

Nirvana's ambitious Wollywood project which is based on Bollywood theme and City of Music project which is based on the music theme are the two distinguished theme based projects. These unique projects distincts them from their competitors. Along with these projects there are various other remarkable projects that the Nirvana Team has successfully launched some of them being- Waterfront, Break the Routine, Divine Villas and Nirvana Farms. With Nirvana's award-winning track record and astounding dedication, one can safely expect more promising projects that too at an affordable price in the near future.
